Crescent City Christians share message of hope

By DAVID HAYES
The TriPLICATE

Ried Powell was inspired by Evangelist Franklin Graham’s idea of leading thousands of Christians in a prayer march around Washington, D.C., March 26.

As associate pastor at Four Square Church, Powell wanted to ensure a similar event in Crescent City on the same day was broad enough to make sure it didn’t matter whether participants were Republican or Democrat, only that they felt comfortable coming to pray for the country.

“The purpose of the event is simply to pray for our country, pray for our leaders and elected officials,” Powell said. “In the bible, it talks about no matter who is in charge, we’re supposed to be praying for them. When a lot of people are unsure what to do, we can all agree on prayer.”

Powell put the word out on the Four Square’s Facebook page and then he invited everyone on his contact list to come pray with them.

“We thought we might get anywhere between 10 to 30 people,” Powell said. “We hope Christians feel united knowing there are a lot of things people are divided on right now. We want them to feel like there is more that unites us than divides us.”

Officials lost count after 80. One person was overheard asking which churches showed up.

Another answered, “I think all of them.”

Leaders and representatives attended from several area churches, including Crescent City First Baptist, Grace Lutheran Church, Smith River Baptist, Hiouchi Fellowship, New Life Community Church, United Methodist Church, Crescent City Church of Nazarene, Home Church, Solid Rock Christian Fellowship, Fort Dick Bible and Gasquet Fellowship.

Powell kicked off the march, with a prayer, at Beach Front Park. The procession then made its way up H Street, most in quiet prayer and contemplation, others in joyful song. They made stops along the way for group prayers outside the Del Norte Superior Court, the Crescent City Police Station, the United Methodist Church and the Del Norte County Sheriff’s Office, each with a different guest speaker.

Blake Inscore was the final speaker when the group made its way back to Beach Front Park. Inscore shared how these turbulent times during the pandemic have led to frustrations both as pastor at First Baptist Church and as mayor of Crescent City.

“I’m not sure I’ve ever entertained the thought of saying I’m done. There’s been nights

Don Nuss’s streamliner “Fast Ford” recently sat on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah, waiting for its next chance to top 300 mph.

Streamliner will turn heads

By DAVID HAYES
The TriPLICATE

Don Nuss has always had a need for speed.

As a youth, he raced hot rods illegally.

As an adult, he legally drag raced until 1990, his dragster reaching 170 mph on the quarter-mile course.

It was still not enough.

Then in 1992, a friend invited him to the salt flats of Utah where streamliners were going nearly half the speed of sound. He was hooked.

By 1999 he built his own streamliner with only one purpose in mind.

Seated in what he calls a fuselage without the wings, his “Fast Ford” achieved a top speed of 337 mph over the five-mile course at the Bonneville Salt Flats.

Now 80 and retired from competitive racing, Nuss, the owner of Redwood Welding Service in Crescent City, is hoping his streamliner turns heads as it sits still at the 29th Annual Sea Cruise Oct. 9-10.

“People usually have never seen one before. They usually ask lots of questions,” Nuss said.

He’s also bringing along another rarity in which he’s half owner — a 1936 Harley Davidson Knucklehead.

“A friend in 2006 asked if I’d ever been to Bonneville. He was a motorcycle guy. We got to talkin’ and the next day we built us a motorcycle,” Nuss said.

Nuss is one of 80 classic vehicle owners registered for the Sea Cruise, according to Jason Bartholomew, president of event co-sponsors Northern Knights Car Club.

“It’s a little lower than we would like,” Bartholomew said. “We generally get 100-200 registrants by the day of the event. A lot of them hold out for the weather, see what it’s going to be like.”

That’s why registration is allowed up until the day of the show. Registration for the Friday night Rolling Car Museum portion of the festivities is $10 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Northern Nights new headquarters at 840 H Street. The Shine and Shine is from 4-6 p.m. with cars socially distanced along 3rd Street, allowing visitors to gawk at the vehicles. The Sanctioned Cruise kicks off at 6 p.m. with participants parading their vehicles through other parts of downtown.

The Outdoor Car Museum is Oct. 10 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bartholomew said registration is $55 the day of the event to get a spot stretched along Beach Front Park.

Judging of the entrants is from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with the award ceremony to follow.

In between there will be music, raffles, food and vendors.

Although registration numbers are down as of Sept. 30, Bartholomew said he has a feeling this year’s Sea Cruise could be something special.

“We’ve had more inquiries than the last couple years because everything else has been cancelled,” he said, pointing to the state’s restriction’s on public events due to the pandemic. “Also, we moved it to the three-day weekend so people can stay a little longer. I’ve got a gut feeling — people have been trapped in their homes for three months. This will be a great

City seeks final input on Beachfront Park options

By DAVID HAYES
The TriPLICATE

After six months on the back burner due to the pandemic, Crescent City staff are ready to pursue the next round of state dollars to expand Beachfront Park and they want the community’s input.

To get a piece of the $395 million available in Proposition 68 grants for park projects, Crescent City must first complete its master plan for Beachfront Park.

Voters approved Proposition 68 — the Park, Environment and Water Bond — in June 2018, which allocated $4 billion in general obligation bonds for park, environmental, water infrastructure and flood protection projects.

“We were set and primed to have this Beachfront Park master plan update starting in March of this year,” City Manager Eric Wier told the City Council Sept. 21. “Unfortunately this year didn’t go as planned. COVID hit right about the same time and turned everything upside down for the city including a lot of projects we had underway at that point.”

For the first phase in updating its master plan, the city sought recommendations from the community last September for a non-competitive $200,000 Proposition 68 grant. Atop the list from those meetings were a labyrinth, bike pump track, expansion of Kidtown and a Bankshot Basketball course.

The next phase was hiring Bay Area landscape architect PGAdesign to develop the public’s ideas into a finalized master plan.

Wier said the original plan was to have PGAdesign present three proposed designs to the Crescent City Council in May and the Councilors adopt a finalized master plan in July to submit to the state.

The new plan is to have PGAdesign’s three alternatives laminated and posted on large boards and placed in Beachfront Park, likely near Stamp’s Way and KidTown, Wier said.

“The community will be able to go, view key concepts while having the atmosphere and ambiance in the park to envision what that might look like,” Wier said. “There will be a Google survey on the city’s website with the master plan’s concepts and we’ve scheduled a public meeting, Zoom style, on Oct. 7.”

The link to the Zoom meeting will be published on the city’s website the day of the event for

Sting nabs alleged child predator

Sheriff urges guardians to use opportunity to speak about dangers of online predators

By DAVID HAYES
The TriPLICATE

The Del Norte Sheriff’s Office arrested a suspected child predator Sept. 26 in an undercover sting operation.

Spearheaded by Deputy Sarah Asbury, of the DNSO’s Investigations Unit, and with the assistance of an undercover decoy, the DNSO apprehended Jason Walton, 39. Del Norte County Sheriff Erik Apperson called the arrest “quite disturbing.”

“As all suspects are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law, the purpose of this post is to encourage parents to have a discussion with their children about the risks involved when associating with unknown people, especially via the internet,” Apperson wrote on the DNSO Facebook page.

According to the DNSO, Walton began conversing over the web-based app MeetMe with an individual who claimed to be a 14-year-old female. At the time of his arrest, Walton had no criminal history, according to the DNSO.

“He was less than honest about where he lived and his age,” Apperson said. “He encouraged the decoy to leave ‘her’ house once her mother left for work. He specified a particular beach location to perform sexual acts at a scheduled time. He also brought specific items, that we would rather not mention, to utilize and give to the decoy.”

Instead of the decoy though, the suspect met several DNSO deputies, including Asbury. Walton was arrested without incident, evidence was collected and the case has been forwarded to the District Attorney for review.

Walton is being held at Del Norte County Jail on three charges:

- Harmful matter sent with intent of seduction of a minor;
- Contact with a minor with intent to commit a sex crime;
- And arrange meeting with a minor for sexual purpose.

Walton is being held on $100,000 bail.

“We understand that putting out information like this could potentially alert other predators in our area, but we believe that in these particular circumstances, prevention outweighs the need to wait and catch people in the

OBITUARIES

Carolyn F. Tweed

July 23, 1951 – Sept. 7, 2020

The family of Carolyn Tweed sadly share her recent passing in Crescent City, California, following her battle with cancer. She was 69 years old.

Carolyn Francis Currie was born July 23rd, 1951 to Charles and Francis Currie, of Hawthorne, California. She was raised in Hawthorne and attended Leuzinger High School. Carolyn was always ready for adventure. She spent her time riding motorcycles in the desert, enjoying days at the beach, and playing with her best friend from across the street, Kathy Kaufman. Kathy and Carolyn were life-long friends who stayed in close contact. Carolyn told stories that often included Kathy.

After her brother and parents moved to Crescent City, Carolyn was not far behind to make Crescent City her home.

Carolyn met Chuck Tweed in Gasquet, California in 1975, and together built a life filled with love, excitement and commitment. Carolyn and Chuck made their home in Crescent City where they raised their family.

Carolyn's adventures were always fun and filled with family and friends. They included starting a new business in Alaska with her husband, canning food with the Millers, and covered wagon rides with the Straights/Dixons. She treasured campouts while salmon fishing with her brother Jim Currie, her friend Kathy and her husband Lou, and with Chuck. She was a frequent participant at the Jed Smith Mountain Man Rendezvous, camping and shooting with the best of them.

Carolyn always had a go-with-the-flow attitude and was up for just about anything. Throughout the years she gathered her family for many adventures such as camping, being on the river, fishing, house boating, and enjoying beach bonfires while surf fishing.

Carolyn was extremely talented and had many hobbies, including painting, leatherwork (which she learned from her mother) and woodworking (which she learned from her father). One of her many artistic endeavors was learning chain saw art from the late Art Stone.

Carolyn greatly enjoyed her sister-in-laws: the late Leslie McNamer, Crystal Birch and Michelle Strange. Get these ladies together and they could laugh about anything.

Carolyn's family who will miss and love her forever are; her husband of more than 45 years, Chuck Tweed, sons Charles Tweed (Jennifer) of Crescent City, California, and Christopher Tweed (Michelle) of Central Point, Oregon and daughter Chelsea (Tressen) Smith of Crescent City, California. Along with grandchildren Dawson, Gavyn, and Emma Tweed and Allie and Daxten Smith of Crescent City, California and Riley and Brody Tweed of Central Point, Oregon. Whenever Carolyn saw any of her grandchildren, her smile would light up the room. She also leaves behind her brother Jim Currie whom she loved and respected, along with his wife Vera of Crescent City, California, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins from a large extended family. Her parents Charles and Francis Currie and her son James Tweed preceded her in death.

As one of Jehovah's witnesses she had dedicated her life to being a disciple of Jesus and she showed this through her love of family, friends and Neighbors (John 13:35). Carolyn very much looked forward to a future free of sickness and death (Revelation 21:4) on a paradisiac earth. (John 5:28-29). No doubt she found great strength and joy in Job 14:14-15 "If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service until my relief comes. You will call, and I will answer you. You will long for the work of your hands."

No services are planned for Carolyn but your thoughts and prayers are always welcome.

Caltrans closes N. Fred Haight Drive at U.S. Highway 101

Caltrans is alerting motorists who take N. Fred Haight Drive to and from U.S. Highway 101 will need to use an alternate route until Spring 2021. Caltrans is building a new bridge over Dominic Creek and reinforcing a nearby concrete box culvert.

Caltrans said Northbound Highway 101 to westbound N. Fred Haight Drive and eastbound N. Fred Haight Drive to northbound and southbound Highway 101 are closed as of Oct. 1.

A temporary traffic signal will be activated on Wednesday, Oct. 7 from north of Rowdy Creek Road to N. Fred Haight Drive. Traffic will be restricted to one lane through the signal. Rowdy Creek Road will remain open.

Motorists are encouraged to anticipate an extra five minutes in their routes for the detour.

This project will remove a reinforced concrete box culvert and will construct the all-new Dominic Creek Bridge, along with creek restoration work.

"We'd like to thank you in advance for your patience as this work will improve drainage during inclement weather conditions and benefit fish passage, among other upsides," said Myles Cochran, Caltrans spokesman.

DNSO welcomes new deputy and correctional lieutenant

Del Norte County Sheriff Erik swore in new Deputy Hossep Ourjanian Sept. 11 and newly promoted Correctional Lieutenant Kyle Stevens.

Ourjanian comes to Del Norte County after a three-year tour with the Sierra County Sheriff's Office.

Ourjanian started his law enforcement career in 1990, working for the Southern California Rapid Transit. He also served with the Los Angeles County Office of Public Safety before going to work for the City of Weed Police Department in 2000. At the WPD, he rose in ranks to sergeant and among his duties was field training officer.

Ourjanian has also served in the California Army National Guard from 1991 through 2012. Meanwhile, from 2008-16, he was employed by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

"I appreciate the vast level of experience Deputy Ourjanian brings with him and I am grateful he has chosen to serve our Del Norte Community. I truly believe he will be an excellent addition to the DNSO team," Apperson said on the department's Facebook page.

Ourjanian is joined in Del Norte with his wife Nicole and son Christian.

Stevens grew up in El Cajon, California and moved to Del Norte County in 1997. He is a graduate of Sunset High School and College of the Redwoods Police Academy.

Stevens started his career with the DNSO in 2010 as a dispatcher. He then served as a correctional officer and was promoted to correctional sergeant. He was also assigned to the court security team while transferring to the operations division. While on patrol he became a field training officer and was often the shift supervisor.

Stevens will be supervising the Del Norte County Jail, under the command of the undersheriff and sheriff. His wife Meagan and their daughter joined him at the ceremony.

"I have worked with Stevens for several years now and I believe his strongest quality is his ability to be a problem solver," Apperson said. "He's a sharp individual with strong leadership skills and always presents himself as direct, honest and objective. I also know his heart has always been in corrections and I'm confident he will do well."

Del Norte County awarded Homekey Funding

The Triplicate

Governor Gavin Newsom announced Sept. 28 that Del Norte County received $2.4 million in the third round of awards for Homekey. The $600 million program purchases and rehabilitates housing, including hotels, motels, vacant apartment buildings and other properties, and converts them into permanent, long-term housing for people experiencing or at risk of experiencing homelessness.

Heather Snow, Del Norte County Department of Health and Human Services Director, said the agency has been renting rooms on behalf of needy clients for years and has been occupying a local motel at full capacity for over the past six months to protect vulnerable individuals from COVID-19.

Snow said Homekey funds will allow the department to work with partnering agency Rural Communities Housing Development Corporation (RCHDC) to purchase the motel and convert it from interim to permanent housing, adding 30 units to the local affordable housing inventory.

“This project will end homelessness for approximately 16% of Del Norte County’s homeless population, as identified in the 2019 Point in Time Survey,” Snow said. “The department will work with RCHDC to develop a tiered rent approach for the tenants, to promote self-sufficiency and strengthen financial sustainability.”

Snow added through on-site management and ongoing linkage to supportive services, individuals will receive the support they need to maintain permanent long-term housing in the community.

Del Norte County Supervisor Lori Cowan said she has been working for the past four years with community partners to address the need for housing in the community and advocating for a solution.

“This is a solution,” Cowan said. “We still have a lot of work to do together to take care of our residents, and this is a big step in the right direction.”

Del Norte County Sheriff Erik Apperson, who has also been working closely with the DHHS for several years to tackle homelessness, wholeheartedly supports the Homekey initiative to purchase a local motel and convert it to permanent housing.

“This project is a huge win. Increasing our housing inventory with this award will help us meet the needs of our community and significantly reduce local homelessness. We can’t just wish homelessness away. We have to formalize some sort of response to it,” Apperson said.

Governor Newsom announced Homekey in June, and in July made $600 million in funding available. Of that, $550 million will be provided to cities and counties by California’s direct allocation of the federal Coronavirus Aid Relief Funds, with an additional $50 million provided by the state to supplement the acquisition and provide initial operating funds.

Awards will be announced on a weekly basis through October 2020. Eligible projects that did not receive funding will be placed on a waiting list in case additional funding is made available.

As coronavirus vaccine nears, health officer emphasizes need to get influenza vaccine

By DAVID HAYES
The Triplicate

While the world is now about halfway through the “introduction period” of the coronavirus, Del Norte’s health officer is reminding residents it’s the start of the influenza season.

In his letter to the community Sept. 29, Dr. Warrent Rehwaltd Del Norte County Public Health Office is planning for the eventual rollout of a vaccine for the coronavirus, which may be available in the next few months.

“Other vaccines are on the way, and by this time next year, I think it is safe to say that most Americans and many others around the globe will have had their first COVID vaccines,” Rehwaltd said.

However, he wanted to focus his message on vaccines that are available now — the influenza vaccine.

With the overlap in precautions for both the coronavirus and the flu virus — social distance, face coverings, hand hygiene, cleaning — Rehwaltd said there are ground to believe the upcoming flu season will be at a pretty low level.

“But, we in public health and others in the medical community really want to take this season’s flu out of the picture as much as possible,” Rehwaltd said. “This means people need to get vaccinated, especially with schools reopening.”

He explained that the Southern Hemisphere has already gone through its flu season, as it is opposite to ours. By emphasizing everyone get vaccinated, they’ve experienced a quite good season, Rehwaltd said.

“There are very few good reasons for not getting a vaccine,” he said.

First, Rehwaltd said you do not get the flu from getting the flu shot. He explained that only the inhaled spray uses any kind of live virus. However, it’s been made to not be infectious inside the body because it’s temperature sensitive.

A flu shot can sometimes trigger a reaction that resembles a mild case of the flu, giving recipients what medical professionals call “influenza-like illness,” Rehwaltd explained.

Second, influenza vaccines are no longer depend on a virus being grown in chicken eggs, which has been standard procedure for decades. This means that even those with true egg allergies can still get a safe version of the flu vaccine, he said.

“So, for the good of all, please get vaccinated for the flu this season,” Rehwaltd added. “It helps keep people safe from bad cases of the flu, helps us keep our hospital running smoothly, and most of all this year, it will enable our medical professionals to be better focused on COVID-19.”

Speaking of the pandemic, Rehwaltd said every new germ that has ever affected humans has probably gone through that same initial introduction phase, where it runs through the population and affects everybody.

“In the past, that is what was called plagues. How it affects people at the time depends on the nature of the germ, and how well we can develop immunity,” he said.

The good news, Rehwaltd added, is evidence is showing the human body’s immune system is remembering the coronavirus like it does other infections, building up its immunity.

“Most immunity is sort of partial immunity; you get sick with something the first time and it may knock you down for quite a while but the next time you catch it, the infection is much reduced,” Rehwaltd explained. “Your immune system remembers that particular germ and goes into high gear right away the next time. We are starting to see signs that COVID is likely to behave this way in humans as well, which is a good thing.”

He added the key for COVID-19 vaccines development is their ability to trigger the body’s immune system to remember its exposure to the coronavirus.

Six Rivers, Klamath removed from closure list

The USDA Forest Service Pacific Southwest Region has revised closure orders and fire prohibitions in California. These decisions will continue to be evaluated daily.

The revisions include: Forest Closures – Six Rivers and Klamath National Forests are no longer part of the regional closure orders but may have local restrictions. Check the websites, social media accounts, or call those respective forests for specific information on what may be opening.

Easing fire restrictions – Propane and gas stove use is now permitted on developed recreation sites on National Forests in California. Developed recreation sites are defined as areas which have been improved or developed for recreation such as campgrounds and day use sites.

Seven National Forests remain closed: Angeles, Cleveland, Los Padres, Inyo, San Bernardino, Sequoia and Sierra. This decision will continue to be reviewed daily, taking fire and weather conditions into account.

Eleven National Forests

may be open to varying degrees. Visitors should contact the following National Forests for more information on their status: Eldorado, Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit, Lassen, Mendocino, Modoc, Plumas, Shasta-Trinity, Stanislaus and Tahoe.

For additional questions, go to bit.ly/3iiofWb.

“We understand how important access to national forests is to our visitors,” said Randy Moore, Regional Forester for the USDA Forest Service Pacific Southwest Region. “As we evaluate fire and weather conditions on a daily basis, we will continue to make adjustments to ensure safe visitation. Our aim continues to prevent any new fires on the landscape.”

If you do intend to visit a National Forest that is open to visitors, we continue to recommend that you not travel long distances to recreate. If you or anyone in your household is feeling sick, please remain at home and plan your trip for another time. All visitors should practice self-sufficiency during your visits to national forests. Recreating responsibly will help ensure that expanded access to recreational facilities, services, and opportunities continues. Responsible recreation practices should be maintained at all times, including:

- Maintaining at least six feet distancing from others
- Do not gather in groups and please follow the latest guidance from officials

- Communicate with others as you pass. Alert trail users of your presence and step aside to let others pass
- Pack out your trash and leave with everything you bring in and use.
- All services may not be available, so please plan accordingly.

PACIFIC VISION MEDICAL CENTER ANNOUNCES CHANGES TO EYE CARE IN OUR COMMUNITIES

After over 30 good years and due to a confluence of circumstances, we regretfully made the decision to close our Brookings office at the end of this year. We will continue to provide ophthalmology and optical services in our Crescent City office.

In addition to this change comes the retirement of our optometrist of almost 25 years, Karl A. Bruhns, OD as of December 31, 2020. He will be missed greatly by staff and patients. We congratulate him on a job very well done, and wish him all the best as he begins this new chapter in his life.

Finally, with Dr. Bruhns’ retirement our focus will now turn more specifically to ophthalmology (medical and surgical) services for those most in need of our skills. For many years we have participated with VSP (Vision Service Plan). This is an insurance that some local employers provide to their employees designed to meet routine vision needs including glasses and contact lenses. While we will continue to participate with Medicare and Medi-Cal, we will not participate in VSP as of January 1, 2021. There are several local optometrists who offer routine eye care for VSP patients.

We have truly enjoyed caring for our community for many years and look forward to our more focused role moving forward.

Arrest made in armed robbery

A 51-year-old man was arrested Sept. 23 for an October 2019 armed robbery.

In October of 2019, the Crescent City Police Department responded to a report of an armed robbery at Subway, located at 309 Highway 101 South.

At the time of the investigation the suspect was not located. Investigators learned at one point during the robbery, the victim was locked in the bathroom before the suspect fled the scene.

On Sept. 23, CCPD Officer Johnathan Cooper was granted an arrest warrant for a suspect he identified through his ongoing investigation.

Later in the evening

Chief Richard Griffin, Sgt. Anthony Lopez and Canine Lt. Kai were able to locate and arrest the suspect in the 700 block of Lauff Avenue.

Johnny Ponciano, 51, was arrested and booked in to the Del Norte County Jail for armed robbery, false imprisonment and kidnapping.

The investigation is being forwarded to the Del Norte County District Attorney for review.

“I want to recognize Officer Cooper for his dedication to working this investigation with limited initial evidence to work with,” Griffin wrote on the CCPD Facebook page.

Ponciano is being held on $250,000 bail.

Man arrested for attempted murder

Crescent City Police Department arrested a 23-year-old man Sept. 21 for attempted murder and hit and run for intentionally hitting a man with his car.

According to the CCPD Police Chief Richard Griffin, at 1:17 p.m. Sept. 20, Johnathon James Michael Amos struck the victim with his 1990s Mazda 323 at the Chevron Station located at 315 Highway 101 then fled the scene.

Griffin said investigators believe the hit and run was intentional based feud or ongoing issues between the two.

“Witnesses saw the victim going up and over the hood of the car,” Griffin said. “They said he drove away looking angry.”

The victim, a 32-year-old Crescent City man, was transported to Sutter Coast Hospital where he was reported in stable condition.

Jonathon Amos

However, Griffin said once there, he was uncooperative with investigators over the incident.

Amos was later arrested Sept. 21 in a vacant lot in the 300 block of McNamara Street. He was booked into Del Norte County Jail and charged with attempted murder and hit and run resulting in injury.

Amos is being held on $250,000 bail.

Arrest made in 2019 Elks Lodge burglary

A 53-year-old Crescent City man was arrested Sept. 28 for a Nov. burglary at the Elks Lodge.

On Nov. 11, 2019, an officer from the Crescent City Police Department responded to a report of a male subject making a lot of noise the area of the Elks Lodge, located at 359 H Street.

According to the CCPD, the subject was not located in the area.

Officers then discovered a burglary had occurred at the Elks Lodge and recovered evidence from outside the building as well as numerous areas inside.

Through further investigation and analysis of the evidence items recovered by the Department of Justice, Officer Tyler Balch was able to author and receive a Ramey Warrant on Sept. 28 for the arrest of Donald Ira Baker, 53, of Crescent City. Baker was then located by CCPD officers and arrested on the same day the warrant was issued. According to Police Chief Richard Griffin, Baker was booked into the Del Norte County Jail and charged with burglary. Bake is being held on $50,000 bail.

Dear Reader

As your community newspaper, we provide a platform for local civil commentary. We also focus on local news and politics. As part of that focus, we are limiting published letters that lobby for a U.S. presidential candidate in the upcoming election.

By confining such letters to two per issue of the newspaper, we can ensure we have room for a variety of other content, both local and

- to a lesser extent - national.

We are also establishing some new rules for letters to the editor. Any that contain name calling, baseless accusations, false or inaccurate information, or personal attacks will not be published. Letters intended only to inflame others, rather than foster community conversation, will not be published.

Thank you for contributing.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

This newspaper’s letters to the editor are limited to a maximum of 350 words and will be edited for grammar, spelling and blatant inaccuracies. Unsubstantiated or irresponsible allegations, or personal attacks on any individual, will not be published. Letters containing details presented as facts rather than opinions must include their sources. All submissions must include the author’s full name, local street address and telephone number (only the name and city of residence will be published).

security reasons, city staff said.

Wier said after the survey closes Oct. 12 staff will take all the comments and come up with a preferred design.

“The preferred design will go before the Planning Commission and Council a few times. The Planning Commission will review a draft presentation somewhere around mid-November, a week before Thanksgiving. The Council will have an opportunity to weigh in on those and it’ll be an opportunity for the public to weigh in again,” Wier said.

The City Council is expected to approve the Beachfront Park master plan concept at a special meeting Dec. 1, as the grant application and completed master plan are due to the state on Dec. 14.

Wier explained that the state is looking to award $395 million for park projects in the current grant round, with communities eligible to apply for up to $8.5 million.

“We could easily have an application that would max $8.5 million,” he said. “That could include expansion to Kidtown, a bike park — which itself is several million dollars.”

act,” Apperson wrote. “We must take an active role in the decisions our children make. We must be present, attentive and even invasive when it comes to how they communicate with strangers. We would prefer to prevent things like this from happening all together. Sadly, there will always be an abundance of people waiting to victimize others, even when their potential victims are our children.”

Apperson said the DNSO will continue to pursue these predators and utilize every resource they have to do so. Apperson asks anyone who has a positive influence over the children in the community to please have a difficult conversation with them and to check in on what they are doing and who they are doing it with.

Apperson emphasized that Del Norte County is not immune to the scary reality of child predators, adding that predators are also not stupid. Because they use technology and advanced forms of manipulation to prey on youth, the community must simultaneously focus on prevention as well as apprehension/prosecution, Apperson stressed.

“This is what we are here to do. Investigations like this are some of the most challenging and rewarding to conduct. So often struggling adults were once tormented children. It’s a terrible cycle that needs to be broken,” Apperson said. “We need to serve our children the best we can so that they have every possible chance to be healthy and successful. Deputy Asbury and everyone else that contributed to this investigation deserve to be appreciated and acknowledged, not just by me, but by everyone that cares about the safety and well being of children.”

over the last six months, whether I’m trying to process being a pastor or being the mayor, I felt like saying I’m done, Lord,” Inscore shared. “I’m done watching people being angry with each other. I’m done trying to show respect to everybody, put my mask on, and give them six feet then turn around and watch people yell at each other. I’m just done, Lord. And every time the Lord said, ‘Well I’m not.’”

He added that because so many people find it easier to lift up their opinions and politics, the answer to what ails the country is simple.

“We just need to go back to living our lives for Christ,” Inscore said.

Proposition 65 Public Warning

The Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986, commonly referred to as Proposition 65, requires the governor to publish a list of chemicals "known to the State of California" to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. It also requires California businesses to warn the public quarterly of potential exposures to these chemicals that result from their operations.

Providing safe and reliable service to all of our customers is a top priority for Pacific Power, and we want you to be aware of these substances so that you can reduce possible exposure.

Pacific Power uses chemicals in our operations that are "known to the State of California" to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Pacific Power uses materials, such as treated wooden utility poles, that contain chemicals "known to the State of California" to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm. Pacific Power provides proper care when handling all our operational materials. However, if you are at or near one of our facilities, you may be exposed to substances on the State of California's list of substances known to cause cancer, birth defects or other reproductive harm.

Wild Rivers Community Foundation and Humboldt Area Foundation share the COVID-19 Regional Response Fund Report, which details the immediate response to human needs in our communities.

Learn about the partnerships and charitable work that has occurred during the first months of the current pandemic in Curry, Del Norte, Humboldt and Trinity counties.

Since March of this year, hundreds of organizations, foundations and individuals have donated approximately $3 million to the response fund. More than half of that has already gone directly back into the communities through 120-plus grants.

As the community continues to respond to the coronavirus pandemic and as we begin to think about recovery, we continue to rely on the generosity of donations. 100% of every gift you make goes entirely to grants.

Thank you for your generosity, leadership and love of this community. We are a better place because you are investing in our response and recovery.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF MITIGATED NEGATIVE DECLARATION

As required by the California Environmental Quality Act, the California Department of Fish and Wildlife's Fisheries Restoration Grant Program is providing Public Notice of the completion of a Mitigated Negative Declaration for its proposed Fisheries Habitat Restoration Project to enhance the capability of streams to produce anadromous salmonids by maintaining, restoring, and improving stream habitat essential to salmonid production.

Implementation Project Locations: Various streams in Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino, Santa Barbara, Siskiyou, and Sonoma counties.

Description of Project: This project will use grant funds approved by the California Legislature to initiate activities that are designed to restore salmon and steelhead habitat in coastal streams and watersheds that historically produced large populations of salmon and steelhead. Activities like bank stabilization and road decommissioning will improve spawning success for adult salmon and steelhead as well as increase survival for eggs, embryos, rearing juveniles, and downstream migrants. The replacement of barrier culverts with bridges or natural stream bottom culverts will allow adult and juvenile salmonids access to additional spawning and rearing habitat. The installation of instream structures will recruit and sort spawning gravel for adult salmon and steelhead and create summer rearing pools and over-wintering habitat for juveniles.

The mitigated negative declaration can be accessed online at <https://www.wildlife.ca.gov/Grants/FRGP/MND>. Due to the COVID-19 emergency the mitigated negative declaration is not available for viewing at Department of Fish and Wildlife offices. If you are unable to access the mitigated negative declaration at the website listed above and want to view it, please contact Mr. Timothy Chorey at (916) 838-0760.

The review period for the mitigated negative declaration starts September 25, 2020, and ends on November 8, 2020. Please submit comments via email to FRGP@wildlife.ca.gov or via regular mail to: Mr. Timothy Chorey, Department of Fish and Wildlife, Watershed Restoration Grants Branch, Fisheries Restoration Grant Program, P.O. Box 944209, Sacramento, CA 94244-2090. Comments must be received by November 8, 2020. For additional information contact: Mr. Trevor Tollefson, Senior Environmental Scientist at (707) 725-1062 (Northern Region); Mr. Manfred Kittel, Coho Salmon Recovery Coordinator, at (707) 944-5522 (Bay Delta Region); Ms. Suzanne Deleon, Senior Environmental Scientist, at (831) 649-2945 (Central Region); or, Ms. Mary Larson, Senior Environmental Scientist, at (562) 342-7186 (South Coast Region).

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY

PROPOSED RESIGHINI RANCHERIA AGGREGATE EXTRACTION PROJECT
EA AND DRAFT FONSI

Notice is hereby given that the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), Pacific Regional Office, has adopted the Department of the Army Permit Evaluation and Decision Document (PEDD), signed February 07, 2018, for the approval of a business lease (Proposed Action). The Tribe proposes to mechanically excavate aggregate from select Klamath River overflow channel(s) in Del Norte County, California (project site). The project site is located on Section(s) 13 and 23, Township 13 North, Range 1 East. The purpose of the Proposed Action is to support and advance the social and economic independence of the Tribe. The Proposed Action, "No Action Alternative" and two additional alternatives were evaluated in the PEDD.

Based on the analysis and impacts in the PEDD, any input received during this public notice, and the entire administrative record; the BIA will decide whether to reach a Finding of No Significance Impact (FONSI), direct further work on the EA, or initiate the preparation of an Environmental Impact Statement. A draft unsigned FONSI has been prepared and is available for review along with the PEDD.

The PEDD and unsigned FONSI are available for review on the internet at <http://resighinirancheria.com/category/tribal-news/> and on the BIA NEPA Tracker website: <https://bianepatracker2.doi.gov/> (Search: TR-4314b-P5 J52 556T Aggregate Extraction Project EA-FONSI Notice). Copies of the EA and unsigned FONSI are available for public review at two (2) physical locations including: 1) the Resighini Rancheria Tribal Administration Office located at 177 Nepuey Road Klamath CA 95548; and 2) the Lena Reed McCovey Community Center located at 176 Nepuey Road Klamath CA 95548. These documents are available for public review at the above-referenced locations from September 25, 2020 to close of business October 09, 2020.

No further action will be taken on the environmental process for at least 30-days after the publication of this notice. The FONSI is a finding on environmental effects, not a decision to proceed, therefore the FONSI can not be appealed. 25 CFR 2.7 requires a 30-day appeal period after the decision to proceed with an action is made before the action may be implemented. Appeal information will be made publicly available when the decision to proceed is made.

For more information, please contact Chad Broussard, Environmental Protection Specialist at (916) 978-6165. Written comments should be mailed to: Amy Dutschke, Regional Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Pacific Regional Office, 2800 Cottage Way, Sacramento, CA 95825.

Contract Goals

The City of Brookings will use contract goals to meet any portion of the overall goal that the City of Brookings does not project being able to meet using RN means. Contract goals are established so that, over the period to which the overall goal applies, they will cumulatively result in meeting any portion of the City of Brookings's overall goal that is not projected to be met through the use of RN means.

The City of Brookings will establish contract goals only on those DOT-assisted contracts that have subcontracting possibilities. It need not establish a contract goal on every such contract, and the size of the contract goals will be adapted to the circumstances of each such contract (e.g., type and location of work and availability of DBE's to perform the particular type of work).

We will express our contract goals as a percentage of the Federal share of a DOT- assisted contract.

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to powers vested in me by the Single-Family Mortgage Foreclosure Act of 1994, 12 U.S.C. 3751 et seq., by 24 CFR part 27, subpart B (the "Act"), and by the Secretary's designation of me as Foreclosure Commissioner, which is recorded herewith, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Friday, October 23, 2020 at 11:00 AM local time, all real and personal property at or used in connection with the following described premises ("Property") will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder: LEGAL DESCRIPTION: LOT 37 OF REDWOOD COAST SUBDIVISION UNIT 1 ACCORDING TO THE AMENDED MAP THEREOF FILED IN THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY RECORDER OF DEL NORTE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA ON FEBRUARY 22, 1985 IN BOOK 10 OF MAPS, PAGE 2. Purportedly known as: 435 LEIF CIRCLE, CRESCENT CITY, CALIFORNIA. 95531 The sale will be held at: THE LOBBY OF THE BUILDING LOCATED AT 124 HWY 101 NORTH, CRESCENT CITY, CA 95531 Per the Secretary, the estimated opening bid will be $127,908.62. There will be no proration of taxes, rents or other income or liabilities, except that the purchaser will pay, at or before closing, his pro rata share of any real estate taxes that have been paid by the Secretary to the date of the foreclosure sale. When making their bids, all bidders, except the Secretary, must submit a deposit totaling ten percent (10%) of the Secretary's estimated bid amount in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made payable to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development. Ten percent of the estimated bid amount for this sale is $12,790.87. A deposit need not accompany each oral bid. If the successful bid is oral, a deposit of $12,790.87 must be presented before the bidding is closed. The deposit is nonrefundable. The remainder of the purchase price must be delivered within 30 days of the sale or at such other time as the Secretary may determine for good cause shown, time being of the essence. This amount, like the bid deposits, must be delivered in the form of a certified or cashier's check. If the Secretary is the highest bidder, he need not pay the bid amount in cash. The successful bidder will pay all conveying fees, all real estate and other taxes that are due on or after the delivery date of the remainder of the payment and all other costs associated with the transfer of title. At the conclusion of the sale, the deposits of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them. The Secretary may grant an extension of time within which to deliver the remainder of the payment. All extensions will be for 15-day increments for a fee of: $500.00, paid in advance. The extension fee shall be in the form of a certified or cashier's check made payable to the Secretary. If the high bidder closes the sale prior to the expiration of any extension period, the unused portion of the extension fee shall be applied toward the amount due. If the high bidder is unable to close the sale within the required period, or within any extensions of time granted by the Secretary, the high bidder may be required to forfeit the cash deposit or, at the election of the Foreclosure Commissioner after consultation with the HUD representative, will be liable to HUD for any costs incurred as a result of such failure. The Commissioner may, at the direction of the HUD representative, offer the property to the second highest bidder for an amount equal to the highest price offered by that bidder. There is no right of redemption, or right of possession based upon a right of redemption, in the mortgagor or others subsequent to a foreclosure completed pursuant to the Act. Therefore, the Foreclosure Commissioner will issue a Deed to the purchaser(s) upon receipt of the entire purchase price in accordance with the terms of the sale as provided herein. HUD does not guarantee that the property will be vacant. The scheduled foreclosure sale shall be cancelled or adjourned if it is established, by documented written application or otherwise, that the default or defaults upon which the foreclosure is based did not exist at the time of service of this Notice of Default and Foreclosure Sale, or all amounts due under the mortgage agreement are tendered to the Foreclosure Commissioner, in the form of a certified or cashier's check payable to the Secretary, before public auction of the property is completed. The amount that must be paid if the Mortgage Deed of Trust is to be reinstated prior-to the scheduled sale is based on the nature of the breach, this loan is not subject to reinstatement. A total payoff is required to cancel the foreclosure sale, or the breach must otherwise be cured, if applicable. A description of the default is as follows: FAILURE TO PAY THE PRINCIPAL BALANCE WHICH BECAME ALL DUE AND PAYABLE BASED UPON THE DEATH OF ALL MORTGAGORS AND THE PROPERTY IS NOT THE PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE OF AT LEAST ONE SURVIVING BORROWER. Tender of payment by certified or cashier's check or application for cancellation of the foreclosure sale shall be submitted to the address of the Foreclosure Commissioner provided below. DEAR ABBY: Years ago, I met a man through golf, and we developed a casual friendship. I lost track of him for a few years, but when I heard his wife was being treated with chemo for cancer, I took them food and offered my support. As our friendship grew stronger, we began playing more golf and became “refriended.” He’s a good golfer, but very serious, and he whines constantly on the course. I have kidded him about it, and he acknowledges it to a small degree.

He’s also joined at the hip with his wife, so much so that when I invited him to our cabin for a guys’ weekend, he asked if his wife and dog could come along. I nixed the dog and reluctantly agreed to the wife. A year later, I invited him again, but without his wife because two other friends were coming and it was guys only. He came, but he didn’t really fit in.

Fast-forward to now. Our friendship continues, but his whining has grown much worse, and he can’t go anywhere without his wife (although she’s very nice). She has mentioned to friends that I’m one of only a few remaining friends, and she appreciates it very much. Now I know why! How do I “break up,” Abby? I don’t want to be around him anymore. -- ANONYMOUS IN THE WEST

DEAR ANONYMOUS: Because your friend doesn’t fit in with the other guy friends, no rule of etiquette says you must continue to invite him. I wish you had mentioned what he whines about when you golf with him. If it is his wife’s precarious health, it may be that he needs to vent in a cancer support group rather than with you. If it’s the golf game, then you will have to decide whether he’s such a valuable golf partner that you need him. If other members of your golf group no longer want him there, it would be a kindness to socialize with him and his wife less often rather than abandon them. If the shoe was on the other foot, isn’t that what you would want?

DEAR ABBY: My siblings died a couple of years apart, and my parents treat me like I’m the one who should be gone. They often complain or compare the things I do to something they would have done.

My parents raised me to be independent and take care of myself, but all they do is show me that I don’t matter. My niece shares that opinion. She thinks I’m not raising my son right. (Mind you, she’s only 20 and doesn’t know her behind from her elbow.)

I want to leave, but finances and obligations prohibit me. What can I do to make them see that I’m doing everything I can? -- NOT VALUED IN CALIFORNIA

DEAR NOT VALUED: I am sorry for what you are experiencing. The thing about being compared to a deceased person (or two) is there is a tendency to idealize the dearly departed. That you are being given short shrift for your efforts is sad. I think it’s time to speak up and let your feelings be known. As to your niece, the
