

Recent grads are more likely to be unemployed than other workers

Unemployment rates

Rates are seasonally adjusted and smoothed with a three-month moving average. All workers are those aged 16 to 65; recent college graduates are those aged 22 to 27.