Motion to Withdraw Plea

HCSO '26 JUL 6 PM 1:28

3 Conway

This is Zachary Conway, inmate ID# 260045.
I just Pled to a Nolo Contendere on 6/15/26.
I was being pressured by my lawyer to take this deal
after years of him telling me to not take a deal and refused to submit exculpatory evidence that will show I was having or dealing with a certain condition at the time and will help my case.
He also was pressuring me and telling me that I was making him look bad and being upset with me because I told him I cannot in good conscience, go in front of the judge and say I am guilty when I know that I am not.

I even Pled Not Guilty in front of the judge
during my brief statement during the sentencing.
I was afraid of my lawyer.
~~and~~ And now that I'm away from him I realize that he was only pressuring me to take this deal to get it over with.
He didn't care how much I begged to go to trial he made it abundantly clear he didn't want to which destroyed my faith in him and made me
afraid to proceed.
But now I am not afraid.
I formally withdraw my Plea of "Nolo Contendere"
It's time for the truth to come out... I AM INNOCENT!
Respectfully,
