

For more information contact:
Taylor Fisher, (414) 635-7007

taylor@kanecommgroup.com

MEDIA ADVISORY: Local Mental Health Resources Available

MILWAUKEE - (Nov. 22, 2021) - In light of last week's verdict at the trial in Kenosha and yesterday's tragic events at the Waukesha holiday parade, Milwaukee County's Behavioral Health Services understands area residents may be experiencing emotions such as anger, confusion or distress. If you or a loved one is experiencing a crisis, please know you are not alone. Local mental health resources are available for children and adults. Wraparound Milwaukee has services available for children and young adults (through age 23), and adults experiencing a crisis are encouraged to call the Milwaukee County mental health crisis line at 414-257-7222 to seek help.

What: Please consider sharing the following resources as part of your coverage.

- IMPACT 2-1-1
 - FREE - 24 hours/7 days a week
- Milwaukee County mental health crisis line - 414-257-7222
 - FREE - 24 hours/7 days a week
- Milwaukee County Children's Mobile Crisis Team - 414-257-7621
 - FREE - For children and adolescents up to age 23 seeking assistance via phone or having a resource meet them in the community.
- Milwaukee County Resource & Referral Line - 414-257-7607
 - FREE - For children and adolescents up to age 23 seeking resources or support.

Who: Representatives from Wraparound Milwaukee and Behavioral Health Services are available to discuss resources available to the Milwaukee community.

When: Interviews are available upon request.

Contact: For additional information, please contact Taylor Fisher at (414) 635-7007 or taylor@kanecommgroup.com.

If you would rather not receive future communications from Kane Communications Group, let us know by clicking here.
Kane Communications Group, 250 E. Wisconsin Ave, Suite 1200, Milwaukee, WI 53202 United States