February 17, 2026 – For Immediate Release

Waxahachie Independent School District is aware of allegations involving an incident involving a special education teacher and student at Clift Elementary School.

When the district was made aware of the incident in question, the employee was immediately removed from the classroom, and, in accordance with district protocol, the parents of the student were informed, and additional notifications were made to Child Protective Services, the Waxahachie Police Department, and the Texas Education Agency.

The employee in question is no longer employed by Waxahachie ISD.

The safety and well-being of our students is our highest priority. Waxahachie ISD is fully cooperating with the appropriate authorities as their investigation continues. Due to the ongoing nature of the investigation and to protect student and employee privacy, the district is unable to provide additional details at this time.

Waxahachie ISD remains committed to maintaining a safe and supportive learning environment for all students.
