2. Internship Program

The station established an internship program from which, for the past year, 14 interns have gained hands-on experience in facets of broadcast operations working with news photographers, weather meteorologists, creative service producers, radio on air talent and digital producers. These programs are designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting. Our internships are "for college credits only".

1 - Savannah College of Art and Design

4 - Delaware Technical Community College

1 - Morgan State University

1 - Salisbury University

1 - Bridgewater College

1 - Marywood University

1 - Sussex Tech

1 - High Point University

1 - Penn State University

1 - University of Georgia

1 - University of Florida

3. Job Fairs

WBOC hosted a Job Fair on Saturday, February 1, 2025, at the Delaware Tech Owens Campus in Georgetown, Delaware - 50 vendors participated. Representatives from WBOC - Sales, Promotions, and Accounting - were available to meet with people, answer questions and take resumes. Over 1,350 people attended this job fair.

4. Training Program

The station maintains a training program to allow station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher vacancies. The training programs are designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions. Departments involved but are not limited to news, creative services, sales, and administrative.

- Account Executive to Digital Sales Coordinator
 - Video Journalist to Broadcast Journalist
 - Editor/Studio Assistant to Videographer
 - Meteorologist to Chief Meteorologist
 - Photographer to Chief Photographer
 - Station Manager to Vice President
 - Accounting Manager to Director of Finance
 - Creative Services Manager to Creative Services Manager/Department Head
 - Video Journalist to News Anchor
- During this reporting period, quarterly "Reporter Workshops" are held to work with on-and-off air personnel in the station's news department regarding career and strategic skills development. As part of this program, the news director and assistant news director meets with air news talent to provide critical analysis of the talent's performance, and to provide critiques that will allow these personnel to enhance their job skills. The News Department offers an extensive training program which requires new employees to participate in a "boot camp" which is a four week plan that covers all the aspects needed for that department.

5. Mentor Program

The station also offers a mentor program to all those newly employed. The mentor offers guidance, training, and support for the new employees. A new employee is paired with an existing employee for as long as the assistance is needed. Departments involved include but are not limited to news, promotions, sales, and administrative.
