FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 6, 2025

Deputy Chief Dave Moran

Coal City, IL-- On November 5, 2025, the Coal City Police Department was issued a search warrant for a residence in the 800 block of E. Division Street. The Coal City Police Department received assistance from the Grundy County REACT team on the serving of that warrant. During the warrant service, Division Street was shut down in both directions for the safety of the public and the responding agencies.

The warrant was carried out and the roadway was reopened about 20 minutes later.

During the warrant service, David A. Hietschold Jr., 46, was located and taken into custody due to an extensive police investigation and charged with 3 counts of Criminal Sexual Assault and 1 count of Predatory Criminal Sexual Assault of a Child. The Coal City Police Department would like to thank Grundy County Sheriff's Office, Grundy County REACT Team, Grundy County State's Attorney's Office, Braidwood Police Department and Wilmington Police Department. This was an isolated incident and there is no threat to the public.
