

FOR INFORMATION

Report of Scholastic Offenses for the period July 1, 2011 – June 30, 2012
prepared by John Doerksen,
Vice-Provost (Academic Programs & Students) [Registrar]

FACULTY / SCHOOL / AFFILIATED UNIVERSITY COLLEGE	OFFENSE	SANCTION
Arts and Humanities	Plagiarism (11)	Six received zero on assignment or essay; one received 50% penalty on assignment; four received 30-40% on essay or presentation
	Had another write on-line quiz (4)	Cases are still pending final decision
Business	Gaining unfair advantage / cheating (2)	Both received failing grade and are not eligible for any Ivey honours designations or access to career management services for a duration of time Both appealed (both upheld)
Education	Plagiarism (8)	Five received zero on the essay / assignment; three were required to re-write the paper
Engineering	Cheating (3)	One received zero on final exam, zero on course, and suspension from University until January 2013 due to second scholastic offense; two received zero on assignment
Information & Media Studies	Plagiarism (11)	One received no penalty – faculty and student agreed to one-year medical leave; nine received zero on assignment; one received 30% on assignment
	Falsified documents	Was refused the accommodation requested
Health Sciences	Plagiarism	Received zero on essay
Law	Plagiarism (3)	Two received zero on essay / assignment; one received “F” in course
Medicine & Dentistry / Medical Sciences	Plagiarism	Received zero on essay
	Cheating	Received “F” in course and not permitted to take summer course
Music	Plagiarism (4)	Three received zero on essay/assignment; one was required to re-write the essay and received 15% penalty to essay mark
Science	Plagiarism (3)	All received zero on assignment
	Falsified information	Received zero on assignment
	Cheating (11)	One received “F” in course and not permitted to take summer course in same subject; three received letters of warning; two received zero on test/assignment; five received “F” in course
	Receiving copy of stolen exam	Failed course on their own – no need to assign “F”

Social Science	Plagiarism (47)	31 received 0% on essay; three received "F" in course; two received "F" on essay; two received grade of 40% on essay; two given formal reprimand; two allowed to rewrite essay to maximum 75%; one allowed to rewrite essay to maximum 50%; one received 30% deduction in essay grade; one received 25% deduction in essay grade; one received 15% on assignment; one given 0% on first assignment, 40% on second
	Cheating (19)	Twelve received 0% on the exam; three received 50% deduction on exam grade; one received zero on multiple choice section of exam; two received formal reprimand; one received zero on latter part of exam
	Possession of electronic device (3)	Two received zero on exam; one received formal reprimand
	Added material to appeal exam	Received zero on exam
	Had another write on-line quiz (56)	One received "F" in course; all others still pending final decision
Brescia UC	Plagiarism (4)	One received zero on assignment; one received grade to maximum 50%; two received grade to maximum 40% on assignment
	Cheating	Received failing grade (F) in course
	Possession of electronic devices during exam	Penalized 10% on exam (electronic device detected and removed early during exam)
	Had another write on-line quiz (3)	Cases are still pending final decision
Huron UC	Plagiarism (14)	One received overall grade reduction of 5%; two had grades split evenly following inappropriate collaboration; two received F (40%) on assignment; seven received zero on assignment; one received failing grade for course; one received zero on assignment and further overall grade reduction of 5%
	Cheating (2)	One had grade split evenly with a student from another campus following inappropriate collaboration; one received zero on quiz/test
	Had another write on-line quiz (62)	Cases are still pending final decision
King's UC	Plagiarism (7)	Seven received zero on assignment / essay
	Cheating	Received zero on exam
	Had another write on-line quiz (3)	Cases are still pending final decision