

Solutions to help your business succeed

At Ranson & Associates - American Family Insurance, insurance isn't just another conversation. It's about making sure each family and business has access to insurance solutions and the guidance of trusted advisors.

Shannon Ranson

Owner Shannon Ranson and his professional team offer American Family Insurance resources to residents in West County and across the region. They have specialist staff in the areas of: Life Insurance, Commercial Insurance, and Personal Lines Insurance.

Shannon has 20 years of experience with American Family Insurance. His previous experiences as a project manager in the construction industry and working with small businesses statewide has provided additional insight into situations regarding home construction, claims, home value, business evaluation and other scenarios.

"We work within the client's wishes," Shannon said. One of the biggest things that sets Ranson & Associates apart from others is not just the team's emphasis on matching individuals with policies, but its education of clients with hands-on attention and face-to-face meetings.

Insurance – Ranson & Associates "In today's environment, some people want to do everything online or via email or social media, and we have programs that do that. But, if a client is looking for a trusted advisor, we really relish the opportunity to sit down and educate them on what they need and why they need it."

American Family Insurance has over 90 years of business experience and is the second largest home and auto insurer in Missouri.

"We've got the backing of a great organization, and our local talent is very strong too," Shannon said. "Nobody wants to have a claim, but when they do, they want to know that they have a knowledgeable agent and a great company behind them."
