Sales Manager, AVP*

In a world where customers expect both convenience and personal service, Peoples National Bank in Town & Country delivers the best of both. By combining modern banking technology with knowledgeable local bankers, the branch provides customers with flexible banking options while maintaining the personal relationships that have always been at the heart of community banking.

"We take the time to get to know our customers and understand what's important to them," said Retail Sales Manager Jeremy Candler, who oversees the day-to-day operations of the Town & Country branch. "Whether they're opening an account, financing a home or growing a business, we want to be their trusted financial partner."

Whether customers visit the branch, use the drive-thru, or call with a question, they can expect friendly, knowledgeable service and support. The bank's commitment to building relationships has helped create lasting customer connections, with many families and businesses choosing Peoples National Bank generation after generation.

The Town & Country location is a full-service banking center offering personal and business checking and savings accounts, lending services, treasury management and access to mortgage specialists and commercial bankers—all under one roof.

With more than 50 years of combined banking experience, the Town & Country team provides customers with knowledgeable guidance and practical financial solutions for every stage of life and business. With assets exceeding $2.1 billion, Peoples National Bank serves 19 communities throughout Missouri and Southern Illinois.
