For 40-plus years, Covenant Contracting, LLC has provided families with an array of comprehensive and professional interior and exterior contracting services year-round. The company, owned by William Reed, offers residential roofing, siding, gutters and trim, replacement windows, deck design and construction, full home remodeling, basement additions, custom patios and screen rooms, and bathroom and kitchen remodels. Customers receive a free, comprehensive inspection and estimate, project timeline and extended care warranty. Reed wants his customers to know what each project will cost, how long it will take and that the company will stand by its work after the sale – that's "trusted performance." It's also a commitment to customer care, which has earned Covenant Contracting an A+ BBB rating and a 5-star rating on all other platforms. Call today to learn more.
