

Retire in style at a lakeside community

Discover the year-round charm of Cape Albeon, where every season is a celebration!

Nestled lakeside, this retirement community is a hidden jewel, offering residents a resort-like experience. Julie Beck, a resident for over four years, describes it as "a delightful haven."

The lakes and lush surroundings captivated Jacqueline Pell, influencing her decision to make Cape Albeon her home. The community's ambiance, complete with lakes and greenery, sealed the deal. The addition of a pickleball court was the perfect touch for Jacqueline, showcasing the community's commitment to active living.

Residents like Jacqueline and Julie embrace an active lifestyle. Whether it's playing pickleball or enjoying card games, Cape Albeon fosters camaraderie and engagement.

The dining room serves exceptional meals, and retirement apartments offer spacious comfort. Residents appreciate the all-inclusive amenities and apartment design.

What sets Cape Albeon apart is its intimate size, fostering a close-knit community where residents and staff genuinely care for one another. The friendly staff and residents create a warm, welcoming atmosphere.

Cape Albeon, a St. Andrews Resources for Seniors Systems community, invites you to schedule a tour and discover why it's the preferred choice for retirement living. Experience the joy of year-round living at Cape Albeon!
