

KRISTI LINDGREN GROUP, REALTORS®

Whether you are searching for your dream home in St. Louis or a vacation home on the Florida coast, the Kristi Lindgren Group provides a full-service experience to every client.

Kristi, as a more than 20-year resident of St. Louis, has a passion for this community and is committed to professionalism and putting your interests first. With a background in accounting, she has a strong foundation for understanding financial transactions related to the industry and is dedicated to helping each client meet their real estate needs in the St. Louis area. Kristi also specializes in selling beautiful beach properties on the Emerald Coast of Florida. After vacationing along 30A and purchasing a home in Grayton Beach, she fell in love with the area's charm, natural beauty, and vibrant beach lifestyle – inspiring her passion for sharing this special place with others through real estate. She is your “boots on the ground” on 30A!

Scott Vogel is a St. Louis native and has a thorough understanding of the local market. He was a previous owner of a local construction company, giving him a broad knowledge of homes in general. Also, his more than 15 years of experience in real estate investing makes him a great resource for his clients. Scott is very involved in the community, has a great appreciation for it, and is instrumental in connecting his buyers with the St. Louis area. Kristi Lindgren Group is dedicated to providing top-notch customer service, looks forward to building strong relationships with their clients, and is always willing to go above and beyond in the complex process of buying or selling a home.
