

Taking the mystery out of estate planning

Brian Quinn & Edward O'Donnell

Quinn Estate & Elder Law, LLC, which has provided customized estate planning solutions since 1975, has added the expertise of attorney Edward O'Donnell to its team alongside owner and Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA®) Brian G. Quinn.

Originally from St. Louis, Edward recently returned home from a 16-year sojourn out-of-state. He started his professional career as a forrester in Montana, and also worked in environmental research. Even as Edward turned his sights to law school, a passion for education remained with him.

After graduation, he and his wife moved to Anchorage, Alaska, where Edward practiced criminal law and civil defense litigation.

Now back home Edward said he's ready to bend his passion for education towards helping families prepare for their most challenging moments.

"I was looking for something where I could have a longer, more in-depth client relationship," Edward said. "I wanted to have multi-generational influence on people's lives and help people through some tough spots."

Choosing the right attorney to assist in navigating complex issues is crucial. Quinn Estate & Elder Law, LLC provides Estate Planning, Elder Law and Long-Term Care Planning, guidance on Medicaid and VA Benefits, Special Needs Planning, Probate, and more.

"Our goal isn't to sell a service," Edward said. "It's to educate our clients."

Quinn offers a free, one-hour consultation for new clients to discuss your family's needs. They can help get your affairs in order by protecting your assets using specialized trusts, avoiding probate, honoring your healthcare wishes, and maintaining your quality of life and care. Most importantly, they will give you peace of mind.

"If we're able to take some of that mystery out of it for you, and help you plan to make your golden years a little easier, I think that's good for everybody," Edward said.
