

Laura Sanders

Laura Sanders is consistently ranked among St. Louis' top real estate producers. When asked why she chose a career in real estate, Laura said, "I love working with people and the challenge of making people's dreams a reality."

When she started out, Laura was lucky enough to be mentored by another "amazing" female realtor, Sue Kelly, who gave her the encouragement and knowledge she needed to move forward in becoming one of St. Louis's Top Realtors.

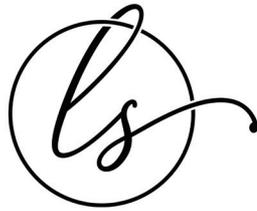

"I was really young when I started. Sue believed in me and has always been on of my biggest supporters. She continues to inspire and encourage me to this day," Laura said.

Now, however, Laura has 15 years of experience and her own team of four realtors. In 2021, Laura closed over $35,000,000 in sales & facilitated 94 transactions.

The Laura Sanders Team features realtors who are top-tier negotiators that provide exceptional customer service and tailor each transaction to the customer and their specific needs. When selling a home, they use aggressive, forward-thinking marketing and provide an organized and efficient team to streamline services to their client. Laura said, "We are relentless in advocating for our customers."

In addition to a great team, Laura has strong relationships with people throughout St. Louis and a confident approach to sales. Her advanced negotiating skills, friendly personality, & professionalism provide clients with the comfort and ease to buy or sell their home.

Sue Kelly

Sue Kelly, MSW, is a full-service real estate professional with 25 years of experience and the distinction of being a top producer.

As a native of St. Louis, Sue knows the neighborhoods in the metro area, especially West St. Louis County and the central corridor. She can help clients sell their present home and/or find and purchase their new one.

As a former family therapist, Sue sometimes takes her social skills into the field. "I really like teaching people to decide what is important to them, helping them to figure out their priorities so that they make the right decision because it is an important one," she said.

Sue also has a network built over more than two decades to smooth the process. "I've done a whole lot of networking, and I have a lot people in hand -- stagers, lenders, inspectors and designers -- resources that will keep things easy for both sellers and buyers," she said.

Because of her years of experience, Sue also has become an expert on locations, value, pricing, and negotiations.

Clients say they appreciate her attention to detail, her professionalism, and efficiency.

"She took our home requirements and found us a perfect match. She was always two steps ahead and kept us informed of what to expect at various stages of the transaction," a client wrote in a testimonial on her website.

Sue cares about her profession and her clients. She will only be content if her clients are 100% satisfied, she said.

Sue looks forward to taking care of you!
