John DEERE (50-Across) had been a blacksmith when in 1837 he opened a repair shop and began manufacturing tools such as pitchforks and shovels; the same year, he invented the self-cleaning steel plow that made him famous. Nearly all species of CICADAs (76-Across) are annual, though the “17-year” ones are better-known. CUBA (117-Across) is larger than the five next-largest Caribbean islands combined.
