

Covenant Contracting, LLC

William Reed, owner

The foundation of Covenant Contracting, LLC is its emphasis on “trusted performance.” According to owner William Reed, this means providing families with an array of comprehensive and professional interior and exterior contracting services year-round. In addition to roofing and deck projects, they also tackle building and remodeling projects like finishing basements, constructing home additions, building custom patios and more. They can even help with aesthetic updates like bathroom and kitchen remodels. Their 30-plus years of experience have also earned Covenant Contracting, LLC an A+ BBB rating and a 5-star rating on all other platforms. For added confidence, they also offer free inspections and estimates for individuals wanting to learn more.
