Owner

Lisa Clemente, owner of Allstate - Clemente Insurance Agency, began working with Allstate more than 30 years ago, first in a claims office and in 2002, as the owner of her own agency. As a result, she has insider knowledge of the claim process and a thorough understanding of policy coverage.

"I love helping customers understand their coverage options and identifying risks or gaps, all while offering choices that fit their unique needs and budget." Lisa said.

The agency is excited to offer significant discounts for new roofs, low miles, safe drivers, good students and more.

"We try to live into our mission every day. We want our clients to feel heard and protected, and to find the middle ground between being under-insured or insurance poor," Lisa said.
