

Look good while doing good

Fantastic Finds, an upscale resale shop in Creve Coeur, helps shoppers look good while doing good. Many visitors come for the high-quality items at reasonable prices, but just as many shop or donate because they know their purchases directly support the community programs of Assistance League of St. Louis (ALSTL). A volunteer-driven nonprofit serving the St. Louis region since 1987, ALSTL transforms generosity into meaningful, local impact.

As a major year-round fundraiser operated entirely by Assistance League volunteers, Fantastic Finds plays a critical role in enabling ALSTL to fulfill its mission. Funds raised allow ALSTL to invest in student success and help families in crisis. Volunteers distribute school uniforms, shoes, coats, and personal hygiene items to students in the region's most vulnerable neighborhoods so that children can attend school.

Proceeds also fuel literacy initiatives, such as book festivals and early childhood book distributions, helping build home libraries and spark a love of reading. Additionally, funds support outreach to families rebuilding their lives, provide essential items for women and children in shelters and empower women seeking to improve their lives through college scholarships.

Fantastic Finds offers high-quality clothing, accessories, home décor, toys, books and more for its ever-growing clientele. The store is located at 12778 Olive Blvd. Shopping hours are Tuesday-Saturday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., with extended hours till 6 p.m. on Thursday, and Sunday hours from noon-3 p.m. Donations of new or gently-used items are accepted at the back door Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m.-3 p.m.
