To: All Union Members

From: John Castilone, President

Vote of No Confidence Results

On Monday, August 31, 2020, at 2200 hours, the Connecticut State Police Union certified the voting results from the Union’s Vote of No Confidence against Governor Ned Lamont, Commissioner James Rovella, and Lieutenant Colonel John Eckersley. Of the (850) Union members, (716) members cast a ballot, however only (707) ballots were valid. This is a 84.5 % membership voter turnout. The final vote counts were as follows;

Do you have confidence in the leadership ability of Governor Ned Lamont?

No – 687    Yes – 18    Abstentions – 2

Results: 97.3% of our State Troopers have NO Confidence in Governor Lamont

Do you have confidence in the leadership ability of Commissioner James Rovella?

No – 681    Yes – 24    Abstentions – 2

Results: 96.4% of our State Troopers have NO Confidence in Commissioner Rovella

Do you have confidence in the leadership ability of Lieutenant Colonel John Eckersley?

No – 682    Yes – 18    Abstentions – 7

Results: 96.6% of our State Troopers have NO Confidence in LTC Eckersley

Your voice has been heard!