Karen Marie Ewbank, 59, of Berryville, Virginia, died Monday, April 9, 2018 in Clarke County, Virginia.

Ms. Ewbank was born May 7, 1958 in Hong Kong, daughter of Edward Ernest Ewbank and Marie Broom Ewbank.

Karen is survived by her mother and father of Auckland, New Zealand; her daughters, Charlotte-Marie Louise Baptiste of Jackson Hole, WY and Maureen "Mo" Dawn-Ellen Baptiste of The Plains, VA; fiancé, Peter Cook; and sister, Margaret "BoBo" Ewbank of Auckland, New Zealand.

Karen was an equestrian, clothing designer, and model. After moving to America in 1989, she resided in Upperville, Virginia until she moved to Pidgeon Hill Farm in Berryville, Virginia in 2000. She completed her riding instructor examination and certification in France, where she was a professional show jumper and riding instructor. Karen continued her passion for horses in Virginia where she taught horseback riding lessons for many years. She was also a member of the local Blue Ridge Fox Hunt and Blue Ridge Fox Hunt.

Karen opened Ewbank Clothiers just outside of Berryville where she designed and sold her one of a kind bespoke tailored clothing and fox hunting apparel. She had a deep compassion for animals, great love for her family, and found peace and harmony in singing. She was a choir member of Trinity Episcopal Church in Upperville.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, April 25, 2018 at 2 p.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church in Upperville, Virginia, officiated by Reverend Robert L. Banse, Jr. Burial will immediately follow the service. A reception will be held in Cox Hall at Trinity Church, weather permitting. In the event of rain, the reception will be held at Fox Chase Farms.

Memorial donations may be made to the Blue Ridge Hunt (http://blueridgehunt.org/wp/) or the Blue Ridge Wildlife Center (http://www.blueridgewildlifecenter.com).

Arrangements are being handled by Enders & Shirley Funeral Home, Berryville.

To view the obituary and send condolences online, please visit www.endersandshirley.com.