Alexa Jacquelyn Cowger,

Alexa Jacquelyn Cowger, 45, of Rosedale, MD, passed on Saturday, March 17 at MedStar Franklin Square Medical Center due to a cardiac event.

Lexie was born in 1973 in Winchester, VA. She attended James Wood High School, the Art Institute of Pittsburgh and was a devoted employee of the American Institute of Ultrasound in Medicine (AIUM) for over 20 years.

Lexie is survived by her loving fiancé of 24 years, Mark Weeks; her twin brother, Jackson Cowger; father, Jack Cowger; step-mother, Sandy Cowger; cousins, Bonnie, Jenna, Brandon and Braeden Woolwine; cousins, Keith Nesselrodt, Jed and JR Ashby, Jessica Peer; Aunt Helen, Uncle Mike and their son, Keith Humphrey; Aunt Carol Lentz; and step-brothers, Chris and Mike Howe.

Lexie was preceded in death by her loving mother, Nancy Caudle; step-father, Jim Caudle; and cousin, Vivian Nesselrodt.

A gathering of family and friends will be held from 3-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. on Thursday, March 22 at Cvach/Rosedale Funeral Home, 1211 Chesaco Avenue, Rosedale, Maryland 21237. Private cremation to follow.

A celebration of life will be held in April. Details to be provided at http://www.cvachrosedalefuneralhome.com

Lexie will be missed greatly for her caring, nurturing and fun personality. She was selfless and always made sure that you knew you were loved. Lexie was a wonderful, creative, loving and fun person who will be missed greatly by many.

Contributions in Lexie's memory may be made to the America Heart Association.