VERIFIED PETITION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

G.R.P, a Juvenile

DEFENDANT

Comes G.R.P., a juvenile, by and through undersigned counsel, and petitions this Court to order a change of venue of the upcoming trial to a larger county outside of Marshall County, the neighboring counties, and the immediate media market, in order to ensure the seating of an unbiased jury for the trial of this matter. This motion is brought under KRS 452.210, to preserve G.R.P.'s right to a fair trial with an unbiased jury, to protect him from cruel and unusual punishment, and to secure his Equal Protection and Due Process rights as guaranteed under the Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 11, 17, and 26 of the Kentucky Constitution. In support of this motion, G.R.P. cites the following:

FACTS

1. GRP is charged with multiple murders and assaults. He has been certified as an adult and is now facing the highest level of punishment a juvenile can face under Kentucky law. The Commonwealth has given notice that it is seeking aggravated penalties in this case.

2. The charges generated a great deal of publicity in local, regional, and national news. In addition, the issue of school safety has kept this case in the forefront of news coverage and has made it the focus of media campaigns revolving around legislation in Frankfort.

3. Because of the victims' ages and the effect on the community, the media coverage of this case has focused not only on the allegations, but also on G.R.P.'s character.

4. The allegations are sensational and involved multiple local victims. The victims and their families grew up in Marshall County and still work there. The local population has a great deal of contact with Marshall County High School, the victims, and their family members, and many have formed opinions that will influence their decision at trial.

5. Marshall County has a single high school, which means that the majority of jurors either attended the school or have a relative with a close relationship with the school. This is an additional factor which prevents such jurors from sitting on the case with an unbiased mind.

6. Citizens of Marshall County have expressed their doubts about G.R.P.'s ability to receive a fair trial due to the level of notoriety, press coverage, and the sensational nature of the charges.

7. The choice of the National Rifle Association to hold a rally in adjacent Calloway County generated additional negative publicity, as protestors for and against the NRA and Oliver North (of Iran Contra fame) clashed on the streets of Murray.

8. The Michael Carneal case in nearby McCracken County (97-CR-00350) was a media sensation in the 1990s and remains in the minds of Western Kentucky residents to this day.

9. G.R.P.'s case has been covered extensively on social media. It is significant to note that Marshall County has a population of approximately 31,000, yet the initial article regarding this case that appeared on social media was viewed over 713,000 times and shared almost 11,000 times. Representative comments on the large number of news stories are attached as Appendix A.

10. Many of the comments on social media regarding the case and/or GRP demonstrate a strong opinion about culpability and penalty. These have been separated and attached as posts and comments from Marshall County residents (Appendix B) and posts and comments from Calloway county residents (Appendix C).

11. Two particular comments by B.J. Posey (Appendix B, p. 1) speak clearly to community sentiment:

I'm no legal expert but it seems pretty cut and dry. Kid went in, killed two and wounded others. I mean honestly no matter what else comes into play nothing will change who was behind the gun pulling the trigger. 2 consecutive life sentences plus multiple attempted murders seems fitting. Kid shouldn't see the light of day again.

I believe you are correct about not having a non bias trial in this area but honestly any jury member that has a child will have a biased opinion also I know what would be going through my mind if I was on a jury in a case like this.

12. Now the publicity and the prejudicial content has been increased due to the recent civil suits against the juvenile, his family, and the school. It is no longer possible to fairly seat a jury in his case from a pool of Marshall County citizens or other jurors from the Purchase Area of Kentucky.

13. The required verification of G.B.P. is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and the supporting affidavits required by KRS 452.210 are attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

ARGUMENT

Section 11 of the Kentucky constitution and the resulting statutes create a right to a change of venue when the local jury, as in this case, is tainted by a sensational trial and press coverage that will substitute itself for the facts presented to the jury. Due Process requires a change of venue when it appears the defendant cannot have a fair trial in the county where the prosecution is pending. Sluss v. Commonwealth, 450 S.W.3d 279, 285 (Ky. 2014). Additionally, under KRS 452.210, the trial court must determine whether public opinion precludes a fair trial, and if so, move the trial to a neighboring county. Foster v. Commonwealth, 827 S.W.2d 384, 387 (Ky. 1991).

In Jacobs v. Commonwealth, 870 S.W.2d 412 (Ky. 1994) (overruled on other grounds in St. Clair v. Commonwealth, 451 S.W.3d 597 (Ky. 2014)), the Kentucky Supreme Court overturned a defendant's murder conviction due to the trial court's failure to grant a request for change of venue. In Jacobs, although a jury was able to be seated, the Supreme Court found that pretrial publicity and the jurors' knowledge of inadmissible evidence resulted in a violation of Due Process and that defendant's right to a fair jury trial. Id. at 415-16. The Supreme Court also held that a change of venue can be required simply from the mood of the community, regardless of the level and knowledge of pretrial publicity. Id.

An accused has the right to a panel of impartial, indifferent, disinterested jurors, and anything less violates minimal constitutional standards. Tumey v. Ohio, 47 S.Ct. 437 (1927); Irvin v. Dowd, 81 S.Ct. 1639 (1961); Groppi v. Wisconsin, 92 S.Ct. 490 (1971). The right to a trial before a fair and unbiased tribunal "is a basic requirement of due process." In re: Murchison, 75 S.Ct. 623 (1955).

WHEREFORE, Defendant G.R.P. respectfully petitions this Court to enter an order transferring venue of this case to a county outside of Marshall County or the adjacent counties, in order to ensure the protection of the defendant's rights as guaranteed by statute, and the federal and state constitutions.

This the 6ⁿ day of May, 2019.

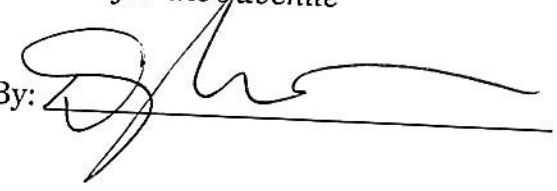

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Griffiths #86645

They should have to do hard labor and if parents are responsible for childrens actions until the age of 26 should the parents have to provide for them. Kyler Holt-Riddle Your still defending yourself? He's a cold hearted killer... your literally saying that it's okay for another kid to kill another kid if he's tried as a juvenile he'll get a slap on the wrist. That should not happen. If it was your daughter Daryl Thompson you'd change your tune really quick. Anyone who kills another in cold blood just for the sake of an experiment to see how people would react is evil Just knowing my tax dollars keeps him living make me SICK!

April Luebker Wow! Just wow!! How can u honestly say u don't care if he gets out of jail at 18 or 21?? R u freaking kidding me?!!

So he can potentially hurt more innocent people?! What if that was your child, your grandchild, your best friends child he brutally murdered?! Think about that! He had no remorse whatsoever!!!

He lost his juvenile privileges when he willingly decided 2 play out a "scientific project" & shoot & kill precious lives!! And mind u THREE of those shot. very dear 2 me. w 2 of them being deceased so how about putting yourself in their shoes & show a little love & respect 4 them bc if you've suddenly forgotten, they didn't ask for this, nor did they deserve any of this! And what about all these students, teachers, parents, siblings who r having to mentally try to deal with what they saw, heard, reliving in their minds 24/7? We've got elementary school kids terrified to go to school! What about all the first responders? The list goes on & on!! I'm gonna continue to pray 4 all involved including the shooter & his family, but I certainly don't want him running scot free either!!! That's absolutely absurd & ludicrous & quite frankly disrespectful & a slap in the face 2 all those involved!!! Please think before you speak when it's somebody else's child, grandchild, niece, nephew... u get the picture!

Randolph Chilton the bottom line is that it is the kids fault the fact that everyone wants to blame the ease of access to a gun or the NRA is a scapegoat if you raise your kids right and teach good morals this would not happen the bad intentions are always in the mind of the person not the trigger of the gun

Angel Smith This is ridiculous Our justice system is BROKE!!! He stole a gun, shot up a school, witnesses saw him, he admitted to police "he just wanted to know what it felt like to shoot someone" what evidence needs to be combed through to know this boy shot, injured and killed? If our justice system would take swift action in these cases, there would be less of these cases. Zero tolerance should be the rule!!!! ZERO!!!!

Anna Marie Beard Tall tree-short rope. He was sane enough to think about how his parents would suffer if he killed himself so instead of doing that to his parents, he made the decision to do it to other parents. I have no sympathy for him.

Jason-Crystal Dunigan It is ridiculous! And he's loving all the attention I'm sure! It's just what he wanted. he got it. while precious lives were taken. he doesn't care. Grrrr just put him in prison already and hold him responsible for the murders he committed and the others he shot and everyone else this has affected! This is why the world is in the shape it's in! Make punishment strong and quit drawing this out so long.. he is guilty!!
