KYIBRS REPORT: NARRATIVE

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

SYNOPSIS:

The defendant violated the sex offender registry requirements by serving cotton candy at Mike Miller Park at the Boo Bash.

INVESTIGATION:

On 10/22/2022 the Investigating Officer, Detective Captain Matt Hilbrecht was working the "Boo Bash" at Mike Miller Park in Draffenville, KY. Affiant received a Facebook messenger message from a concerned citizen, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] sent affiant a photograph of the defendant working a cotton candy stand at Mike Miller Park. [REDACTED] stated that the defendant was a registered sex offender and even provided a copy of the defendant's registration from the Kentucky State Police website. [REDACTED] wanted to know if anything could be done about the offender handing out cotton candy to children. Due to the noise at the event, I/O did not immediately see the message. Upon discovering the message, I/O immediately contacted the Park Director Britney Hargrove. Ms. Hargrove confirmed that prior to the event, she was unaware that the defendant was a registered sex offender, nor had he received prior written permission from the Park to be on the Park property as required by KRS 17.545(2). Ms. Hargrove then advised affiant that prior to I/O contacting her, that someone else had already contacted the Police and the defendant had been removed from the property. I/O contacted dispatch and learned that the defendant had been removed from the property by Benton City Police Officer Tyler Coursey. Officer Coursey was able to confirm that the defendant was in fact on the property and that the defendant was in fact the registered sex offender Russell McDonald. Officer Coursey stated that the defendant voluntarily offered to leave the premises as if he was aware that he shouldn't be there. Officer Coursey stated that the defendant was escorted off of the premises.

The cotton candy stand was set up on the lower soccer field of Mike Miller Park. Mike Miller Park is a public park which contains multiple playgrounds. The soccer field is located approximately 293 feet from a playground on the same public property of the area where defendant was set up, without any fences or barriers separating the fields and the playground.

The stand in which the defendant was working was Cotton Candy Creations. This is a pink camper which has been converted into a cotton candy stand. I/O was provided multiple pictures of the defendant working events in which children were present and the defendant was wearing a pink and white T-shirt with the company name on the front of the shirt and "Sugar Daddy" on the back of the shirt.

On 10/23/2022 I/O received additional information that the defendant had also been serving cotton candy at a Benton Elementary Fall Festival. I/O was able to speak with [REDACTED] who was a witness in that case. I/O learned that the Fall Festival was actually held at KY Shores on US 641, not on School property. I/O was also advised that the defendant had served cotton candy at other School events in Lyon County. I/O advised the complainants to forward that information to the Kentucky State Police. On 10/24/2022 I/O spoke with KSP Trooper Holt, who advised that he was in fact investigating those allegations and would be seeking criminal charges.

The defendant is on a routine bases putting himself in situations to have contact with juveniles, and has persistently violated the sex offender registry requirements.

On 10/24/2022 I/O applied for an arrest warrant for the defendant. Judge Telle granted a criminal summons.

On 10/25/2022 I/O attempted to serve the summons at the defendant's residence, however no one was home at that time.

On 10/26/2022 I/O was able to locate the defendant working at the Tourism Commission in Grand Rivers, KY. I/O
