

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
APRIL 12, 2024

RINDAL ANNOUNCES CAMPAIGN FOR EAU CLAIRE COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

(Eau Claire, WI) - Current Eau Claire County District Attorney Peter Rindal announced his bid to remain in the position of District Attorney in the November 5 election.

With a wealth of prosecution experience and a long-standing commitment to serving his community, Peter Rindal aims to maintain the integrity, accountability, and fairness he has brought to the office of Eau Claire County District Attorney during his first term.

Raised on a dairy farm outside of Fall Creek, Rindal has deep roots in Eau Claire County. "I grew up here," said Rindal. "I know and love this community and consider it an honor to represent the State of Wisconsin and the people of Eau Claire County in the courtroom." Rindal continued, "It matters to me that the people of Eau Claire County are represented fairly and justly, and that is why I'm running for District Attorney."

Having served as a prosecutor for more than 13 years, with more than 10 of those years being in Eau Claire County, District Attorney Rindal has a comprehensive understanding of the criminal justice system and a proven track record of advocating for public safety and victims' rights while ensuring due process for all.

Rindal was appointed to the position of Eau Claire County District Attorney in 2021 by Governor Evers. Rindal's appointment came with the support of local law enforcement and county leadership, and he retains support for his election bid from local leaders in law enforcement and beyond, including:

- Eau Claire County Sheriff Dave Riewestahl
- City of Eau Claire Police Chief Matt Rokus
- City of Altoona Police Chief Kelly Bakken
- City of Augusta Police Chief Gordon O'Brien
- Village of Fall Creek Police Chief Colin Mumford
- Village of Fairchild Police Chief Chad Halvorson
- Representative Jodi Emerson of the Wisconsin State Assembly
- Eau Claire County Board Chair Nancy Coffey
- Eau Claire County Clerk of Courts Susan Schaffer
- Eau Claire County Corporation Counsel Sharon McIlquham
- Supervisor Jane Mueller, Town of Washington Board of Supervisors