

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pablo Center Continues Season 9: On the Rise with New Show Announcements and First-Ever Broadway Subscription

New Broadway, concerts, comedy, family entertainment and more join an already growing Season 9 lineup.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. — Pablo Center at the Confluence is continuing to build Season 9: On the Rise with the announcement of its latest wave of performances, highlighted by the introduction of the organization's first-ever Broadway subscription. Today's announcement adds Broadway blockbusters, concerts, comedy, family entertainment, and special events to an already exciting season, with additional performances still to be announced throughout the year.

"Season 9 is about building momentum," said Kathy Wright, Talent Buyer of Pablo Center. "We're excited to continue unveiling performances that bring people together while creating opportunities for our community to experience incredible entertainment right here in Eau Claire. And this is only the beginning—we'll continue announcing more shows throughout the season."

A New Era for Broadway at Pablo Center

Headlining today's announcement is the launch of Pablo Center's first-ever Broadway subscription, allowing patrons to purchase all three Broadway productions together for the first time in the organization's history.

The subscription includes:

Legally Blonde The Musical – The beloved Broadway hit follows Elle Woods as she defies expectations and discovers her own potential in this funny, energetic, and inspiring musical packed with memorable songs and heart.

Shucked – One of Broadway's biggest recent successes, this Tony Award-winning musical comedy delivers laugh-out-loud humor, heartfelt storytelling, and an irresistible country-inspired score.

SIX – The international phenomenon transforms the six wives of Henry VIII into modern pop icons in a high-energy concert experience that has captivated audiences around the world.

"Broadway continues to be a huge hit with our audiences, and we're thrilled to finally offer a subscription package," Wright said. "People no longer have to leave the Chippewa Valley to experience nationally touring Broadway productions. We're proud to offer the quality of entertainment you'd expect in a major market while providing the convenience and hospitality that make an evening in Eau Claire so enjoyable."

Newly Announced Performances

Today's announcement also includes an exciting variety of performances across multiple genres.

Fans of the hit television series can experience Outlander in Concert, an immersive evening combining live orchestral music with breathtaking visuals from the beloved saga.

Holiday traditions return with Mannheim Steamroller Christmas, featuring Chip Davis' legendary holiday music and spectacular multimedia production.

Wisconsin favorites Them Coulee Boys will take the Pablo stage for their final hometown performance, celebrating the band's remarkable career with one unforgettable evening.

Families can enjoy Puppy Pals Live, featuring talented rescue dogs performing amazing tricks and heartwarming stunts for audiences of all ages.

True crime fans can hear from internationally recognized criminologist and bestselling author Dr. Katherine Ramsland, whose work studying serial killers and criminal psychology has influenced books, documentaries, and television productions around the world.

Comedy comes to the stage with Moms Unhinged, an evening of hilarious stand-up celebrating the realities of modern motherhood.

The season also includes A Night in the Bayou, Pablo Center's signature annual fundraising event. Guests will enjoy an immersive evening of Louisiana-inspired food, music, entertainment, and one-of-a-kind experiences while raising critical support for Pablo Center's arts education, community programming, and nonprofit mission.

Building on an Already Exciting Season

Today's announcements join an already impressive lineup of Season 9 performances previously announced throughout the year.

Upcoming events already on the calendar include KPOP Princesses, illusionist Justin Willman, The Rock Orchestra by Candlelight, comedian Henry Cho, acclaimed singer-songwriter Gordi with special guest S. Carey, renowned storm chaser Reed Timmer, Beatles tribute Liverpool Legends, the theatrical production Churchill, the timeless ballet

Swan Lake, bestselling humorist David Sedaris, The Golden Girls: The Laughs Continue, the holiday favorite The Nutcracker, and Lorie Line's Christmas Show.

Together, the growing Season 9 lineup reflects Pablo Center's commitment to presenting world-class entertainment while offering something for audiences of every age and interest—from Broadway and concerts to comedy, dance, family programming, and thought-provoking speakers.

More Than Entertainment

As a nonprofit performing arts center, every ticket purchased helps support Pablo Center's mission of enriching the Chippewa Valley through the arts. Ticket sales help fund arts education programs, community outreach initiatives, and opportunities for local artists while bringing nationally and internationally acclaimed performers to the region.

"One of the things we're most proud of is the variety we bring to our stage," Wright said. "Whether you're a Broadway enthusiast, a music lover, looking for a family outing, or discovering something completely new, Season 9 offers countless opportunities to experience the performing arts together."

Broadway subscriptions and tickets for today's newly announced performances go on sale tomorrow for circle level members. As part of the launch, patrons will also experience Pablo Center's new ticketing platform, offering a more seamless purchasing experience, Broadway subscriptions, color-coded seat maps, and the ability to purchase tickets for multiple performances in a single transaction. Additional Season 9 performances and special events will continue to be announced throughout the year.

For the complete Season 9 lineup and ticket information, visit PabloCenter.org.

Season 9 Newly Announced Performances

- Legally Blonde The Musical
- Shucked
- SIX
- Outlander in Concert
- Mannheim Steamroller Christmas
- Them Coulee Boys – Final Hometown Performance
- Puppy Pals Live
- Dr. Katherine Ramsland
- Moms Unhinged
- Pablo Center Fundraiser

Previously Announced Season 9 Performances

- KPOP Princesses
- Justin Willman
- The Rock Orchestra by Candlelight
- Henry Cho
- Gordi with special guest S. Carey
- Reed Timmer
- Liverpool Legends
- Churchill
- Swan Lake
- David Sedaris
- The Golden Girls: The Laughs Continue
- The Nutcracker
- Lorie Line's Christmas Show

Media Contact

Amanda Anderson

Amanda@pablocenter.org

Director of Marketing

Pablo Center at the Confluence