Dairy Barn Fire

[Pepin County, Wisconsin – July 25th, 2024] – The Pepin County Sheriff's Office Communications Center received a 911 call at 12:49 AM reporting a dairy barn on fire at N6833 Fall Creek Road, Durand, WI. Sheriff's Deputies arrived on the scene first, and at that point, a large portion of the barn was fully engulfed and already starting to collapse. Sheriff's Deputies, along with the property owner entered the barn and were able to free most of the cattle from the building.

The barn is considered a total loss. Several dairy cattle were injured, and at the time of this press release, 1 cow was deceased.

The Durand Fire Department was assisted at the scene by the Rock Creek Fire Department, Mondovi Fire Department, and Durand Ambulance.
