

Press Release

Today the City of Sandwich can announce that all parties to the lawsuit involving the property commonly known as “Sandwich Commons” have executed a Settlement Agreement resolving the litigation. The Settlement Agreement contains a confidentiality provision that prohibits the parties from discussing the substance of the Agreement, and accordingly, the City will not comment regarding the substance. Nevertheless, the City of Sandwich is pleased that this matter has been resolved and looks forward to working with the remaining property owners in “Sandwich Commons” to facilitate the appropriate development of the project. The City will have no further comment at this time.
