

Are you passionate about journalism and ready to take your first steps into the world of television news? WTVA-TV seeks enthusiastic and dedicated interns to work with our award-winning news team. As an intern, you'll have the chance to work alongside experienced anchors, producers and reporters and gain hands-on experience in a dynamic environment.

What You'll Do:

- Watch, observe and shadow anchors and producers in the newsroom. You'll learn from some of the best in the business.
- Learn how to shoot, write and edit news stories.
- Learn how to produce and stack a newscast.
- Gain valuable knowledge about the television news industry, including how our broadcast, digital and social media platforms operate.

What We're Looking For:

- A strong passion for journalism and a desire to learn more about the field.
- Basic knowledge of journalism, news and communications.
- A willingness to be flexible.
- Strong communication skills and a team-oriented attitude.

Requirements:

- Currently enrolled in or recently graduated from a relevant degree program (e.g., Journalism, Broadcast Journalism, Communications).
- No prior professional experience is required, but a passion for news and a willingness to learn is essential.
- Applicants must be able to receive college credit for their internship.

This is an exciting opportunity to gain valuable experience and start your resume in a supportive and innovative environment. If you're ready to explore the world of television news, apply today!

To Apply: Please send your resume and a brief cover letter explaining your interest in the internship to doropeza@wtva.com. Please also include at least 3 program/school-related references for consideration. We look forward to hearing from you!

WTVA-TV is an equal opportunity employer and encourages candidates from all backgrounds to apply. This is an unpaid internship.**
