RULES FOR MARKING

It will be found convenient to indicate Attendance by the following marks on the dark blue line:

Morning, . . . . /
 Afternoon, . . . \
 Entire day, . . . X
 Tardy, Morning,  $\nabla$

If tardy both sessions, a figure below the line will indicate tardiness in the afternoon:  $\lambda$ . Both sessions,  $\times$

When pupils are absent, the blank space is left to be filled by any explanation afterwards given, as: I for Ill; Ex. for excused.

Department marks may be written on the light line, opposite each pupil's name. Numbers from 1 to 5 may be used to indicate varying degrees of excellence. As twenty days make the school month, 100 in the monthly summary would indicate perfection, and the yearly average could be readily found by dividing the sum of the months by the number of months.
