

An Evening Under The Star

Wednesday, October 25 | 5:30 pm
Freedom Cornerstone | 750 Plott Street

There is a new star shining brightly in east Greensboro!

Join us for an evening to gather on the Downtown Greenway and celebrate the final element to Radcliffe Bailey's public art piece "Ascension" at the Freedom Cornerstone. We invite our local community to come together for this free event, including light hors d'oeuvres by the Historic Magnolia House, entertainment by DJ p.s. edekot, and a chance to connect with friends and neighbors.

A cash bar will be setup on-site. Parking at 750 Plott Street.
